PUBLIC GARDEN, MUSIC, ETC.

THE SUBSCRIBER most respectfully acquaints his friends and the public that he is now prepared to receive company at his Establishment. His Saloons and Drawing-licoms are commodicusly fitted up for parties of ladies and gentlemen, where they will be served by obliging and attentive waiters. Separate rooms furnished for private parties. His arbors and grounds are being put in proper order. Arrangements have been made with the United States Marine Band to perform on each Tuesday evening, until 11 c'clock. His Creams, etc., will be always of the best quality, and at moderate prices. No effort will be spared by him in making his patrons comfortable. PUBLIC GARDEN, MUSIC, ETC.

In order to insure a quiet, unannoyed promenade, he adopts, for the present, the following course: Patrons visiting the Garden, when illuminated, will procure a check at the ticket office, near the gate, for which 12½ cents is required, and which check, on other than Gala nights, is redeemable in confectionaries for the same Mount.

An efficient police have been engaged to preserve order

An efficient police nave need to be a supposed on gala nights.

Thankful for patronage thus far, he hopes to deserve a continuance of the same. His expenses in carrying out the above are, it is obvious, very large, but he relies upon the liberality of the citizens to be able to proceed.

CHOLERA. A sure Remedy—a Preventive—a Cure!

A sure Kemedy—a Preventive—a Cure!

The following letter is from Mr. Woodward, of St. Louis, to J. N. Harris, esq., New London, Conn., General Wholesale Agent for our PAIN KILLER.
Mr. Woodward is a resident of St. Louis, a gentleman of high respectability, and during the prevalence of the cholera in that city has watched the result of the application of our Pain Killer for this disease, and his testimony can be relied on with the utmost confidence.

PRINT DAYS & SANS.

PERRY DAVIS & SONS.

can be relied on with the utmost confidence.

PERRY DAVIS & SONS.

J. N. HARRIS, esq.—Dear Sir: You will recollect when I saw you in New London, in January last, my expressing to you my most sanguine expectations that DAVIS's PAIN KILLER would have a tremendous sale in the West this season, and my anticipations have been more than realized, and the testimony of thousands who have used it has been, that they would not be willing to go to bed at night without it in the house.

On the appearance of the cholera in this city, such was the confidence in the Pain Killer as a remedy, that many who purchased it remarked to me that they had no fears or dread of the cholera as long as they had the Pain Killer by them, and hundreds took it daily as a preventive, for no person can have a derangement of the bowels or diarrhosa if they use this medicine daily. This was the security and confidence of hundreds acquainted with it, and when their friends were attacked with the cholera, they would administer this remedy in large quantities internally, and also externally, by bathing and rubbing them with it; and in every case where it has been taken in any of the first stages of this disease it has proved successful. I consider it an infallible remedy. I have not heard of an individual in any family who used the Pain Killer when attacked, but speedily recovered.

Captain Broadwell, of the steamer Atlantic, a New Or-leans packet, informed me that, on one of his trips up the river to this city, there were upward of seventy cases of cholera on board, and the Pain Killer was used with complete and triumphant success.

The Clerk informed me that he had administered it to persons when cold and in the cramps, and it gave immediate relief; but still it should be given quickly, for when the discharge of "rice water" has begun, the hope of life has fied. Should this disease make its appearance among you, as in all probability it will, be not alarmed; you and all others there have the remedy, and I am confident if the Pain Killer is used, no the Pain Killer is used, not a death by cholera will occur in your city.

If the cholera comes among you watch its progress and the remedy use, and, mark my words, the family who uses the Pain Killer daily will have no diarrhaca, no disarrangement of the bowels, and consequently no cholera. If those who are attacked will use the Pain Killer early and thoroughly, they will be saved. This has been the experience of hundreds in this city during the ravages of this dreadful disease.

I have not been able to supply one-fourth of the demand. I have received orders from persons begging me to send them some.

Now, for your own sake, for my sake, and for the sake of suffering thousands, make some arrangements that your agents can be supplied. Increase your manufac-

Now, for your own sake, for my sake, and for the sake of suffering thousands, make some arrangements that your agents can be supplied. Increase your manufacture, do something that a suffering world may be relieved from pain, for the time will come when not a family on this continent will be willing to do without it a single day. Respectfully yours,

A. T. WOODWARD.

June 4—tf LEVERETT'S LATIN LEXICON. TNLARGED AND IMPROVED, compiled chiefly from the Magnum Totius Latinitatis Lexicon at Facciolati de Forcellini, and the German works of Scheller and Lue-emann, embracing, also, the classical distinctions of ords, and the Etymological Index from Freund's Lexi-

The present edition of this standard and favorite Latin The present edition of this standard and favorite Latin Lexicon has been much improved by the transfer to its prolumns of the classical distinctions of Latin words, as given in the Lexicon of Dr. Wm. Freund, of Germany, sand translated by Riddle. The classical degree of each word is indicated by a figure; for example, a word with out a figure is fully classical and Ciceromian; with the figures 1, 2, and 3, words are classical only in the first, second, &c., degrees; and this distinction the student perceives at a glance. The Etymological Index, also from Freund's Lexicon, has been incorporated into the present edition of Leverett, and will be found a valuable acquisition. While transferring these notes and marks, catalogues were carefully kept of the words found in each Lexicon, which were not found in the other. On comparing these catalogues, it was found that the value and importance of the additional words found in Leverett, so far as a knowledge of the Latin language is concerned, very portance of the additional words found in Leverett, so far as a knowledge of the Latin language is concerned, very far exceeds that of those found in Riddle's Frennd. The extensive use of Leverett's Lexicon in all parts of the country, and the preference which has been universally given to it over all similar works, render its recommenda-tion superfluous; but attention to this new edition is respectfully invited, as being still more worthy than its predecessors of the distinguished favor which the work has hitherto received.

Amherst College, Dec. 25, 1848.

Mr. Robert Scars—Dear Sir: I have looked over the entire series of your valuable publications with much interest and profit; and am quite surprised at the amount of literary labor you have performed, and the research it must have cost you to obtain so many fine illustrations, while you have an active superintendence of an extensive business. I am also gratified at the decidedly moral and religious influence which your books will exert, and cannot but hope that they will do much to counteract the effects of that light and immoral literature which deluges the land, and, like the frogs of Kgypt, comes up even to the kneading troughs of our kitchens. May you live long to follow your plans.

Respectfully and sincerely, your obliged servant, EDWARD HITCHCOCK.

*The works alluded to as having been examined and recommended, are as follows: A new and popular Pictorial Description of the United States, Pictorial History of the American Revolution, Scenes and Sketches of Continental Europe, Description of Great Britain and Ireland, Pictorial Family Annual, Treasure, of Fundamental rial Family Annual, Treasury of Knowledge, Information for the People, The Family Instructor, Pictorial Sunday Book, Bible Biography, Bible History, and second series of The Wonders of the World.
